

#LanguageISAVerb

A TESOL B-MEIS & We Live Languages Slow Twitter Chat

We are affirming the right to be multilingual in all its forms, fluidity, hybridity and identities through the hashtag #LanguageISAVerb. Stay tuned for prompts and activities. We want everyone around the globe to join. We want YOU to enact your multilingual identities, fight linguistic discrimination and engage YOUR multilingual voices wherever, whenever, however you are!

10/11

(Trans)language your own #LanguageISAVerb hashtag, using translation, mixing, hybridity... You could translate word by word or remix it!

10/12

Share a picture or artwork that reveals, connects or complicates your relationship with your multilingualism. Be as creative as you wish!

10/13

Tell us about your most significant or impactful word, concept, idea in any language.

10/14

Share a powerful book or story that connects to your multilingual experiences.

10/15

Tell us about a time when you felt or witnessed someone feel as though they have been unfairly judged, treated, or commented on because of their multilingualism in the ways they sound, move, speak, write, and communicate. See examples at <https://accentism.org/>

10/16

Tell us about what makes you engage, laugh, cry, get mad, feel happy, proud, sad... Share meaningful code-switching moments; creative translanguaging; GIFs; Memes, TikToks...

10/17

Tell us about a song or a poem, a stanza, verses you love:

1. Which has multiple languages,
2. The wordings captured in one language are beautiful and the ideas make you want to share with others.
